Leuven is known for its beer, its béguinages, and its university. It is a place where people have built relationships and where war has torn lives apart.

-Béguinages were created as communities for unmarried, semi-religious women, Leuven's originated in the 1200's.
-During the First World War the university library, then housed in the University Hall, was destroyed by fire. In the 1920s, a new library was built on the Mgr. Ladeuzeplein thanks to American funding. The carillon in the tower - one of the largest in Belgium - is a gift of 16 American engineer associations.
-Leuven was again largely destroyed in World War II, rebuilding was carried out with international cooperations.
-It is home to Anheuser-Busch InBev, the world's largest brewer group; and to the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, the largest and oldest university of the Low Countries and the oldest Catholic university still in existence.

Groot Begijnhof (Great Beguinage)

The origin of the name 'begijn' is unclear. These women only took temporary vows of chastity and obedience to the 'mistresses' of their choice. As opposed to the conventuals they did not have to observe the rule of poverty and were therefore able to have private property and an income. For the remainder they provided for themselves via donations made to the 'begijnhof'. They also generated income from teaching, health care, manual labour like embroidery, sewing, washing, spinning ...

Romans 14:7-9

English Standard Version (ESV)

⁷ For none of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself. ⁸ For if we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. ⁹ For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

As you visit Leuven today, think about these things:

- What was the situation in during the World Wars?
 - How did the leaders of Leuven change the world?
 - How is your world similar to that?
- What challenges you?
 - When have you needed comfort?
 - How does it make you feel to read these questions?

A History of International Partnerships

Nicene Creed:

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father [and the Son], who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Each Card provides a program plan, flyer, and handouts for a selected location.

The handouts and plan guide participants in understanding the significance of the location. They are also resources to assist participants in individual and group Religious Education and Spiritual Formation.

The Deck of 52 is designed for Army Chaplains to lead “chapel field trips” with methods like a “flash mob” (informal, uncomplicated, and inexpensive).
