Frankfurt is known for its Stock Market and historic agricultural markets. Today, it is a place where world leaders, travelers, and art lovers meet.

-The spectrum of the Christian Orthodox world opens up in the Icon Museum, which presents the art and ritual of icons from the 15th to the 20th century. In the former refectory of the Deutschordenshaus, clearly contoured rooms create a charged relationship between the ritual and the building itself.

-Schuch's Restaurant is family owned features its own Apfelwein. It is tied up in the history of the city of Frankfurt and the transition from agriculture to global economics.

Psalm 34

English Standard Version (ESV)

I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
My soul makes its boast in the Lord; let the humble hear and be glad.
Oh, magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together!
I sought the Lord, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears.
Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces shall never be ashamed.
This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him and saved him out of all his troubles.
The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.
Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good! Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him!
Oh, fear the Lord, you his saints, for those who fear him have no lack!
The young lions suffer want and hunger; but those who seek the Lord lack no good thing.
Come, O children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord.
What man is there who desires life and loves many days, that he may see good?
Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit.
Turn away from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.
The eyes of the Lord are toward the righteous and his ears toward their cry.
The face of the Lord is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.
When the righteous cry for help, the Lord hears and delivers them out of all their troubles.
The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit.
Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of them all.
He keeps all his bones; not one of them is broken.
Affliction will slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned.
The Lord redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

As you visit Frankfurt today, think about these things:

- How are you focusing on the beauty of Christ in Lent?
 - What sacrifices to you make for Christ?
 - How do you give to Christ extravagantly?
- What is your favorite flavor from lunch today?
 - How does this help you understand Psalm 34:8?
- How does it make you feel to read these questions?

Thank you to Ms Tonya Parham for planning and leadership in today's event.

A Wealth of Beauty, Flavor, and Faith

How do your shopping & home decorating demonstrate your faith?

The spectrum of the Christian Orthodox world opens up in the Icon Museum, which presents the art and ritual of icons from the 15th to the 20th century. In the former refectory of the Deutschordenshaus, clearly contoured rooms create a charged relationship between the ritual and the building itself.

The works of art provide insight into the world of Orthodox belief from Northern Russia, through the Middle East and all the way to Ethiopia. The museum also owns metal sculptures such as travel icons, crucifixes, crosses to be worn around the neck, ecclesiastical utensils and textiles. Special exhibitions and program present the large repertoire of icon painting and its ritual and cultural connections up to the present day.
