

Katterbach Protestant hosts Sweetheart Banquet

Soft lighting, a warm fire, elegant dinnerware, a four-course meal and excellent conversation combine to heighten each couple's romantic experience.

Couples enhance their relationship in a quaint and romantic setting by discussing open-ended questions designed to promote mutual understanding.

Summary: On 30 January 2015 Katterbach Protestant Congregation (KPC) conducted a semi-formal Sweetheart Banquet at a local Italian Ristorante. 18 couples participated in this Valentine's Day banquet designed to affirm love for their spouses. Each person enjoyed a four-course meal that included tomato soup & bread, pasta, steak or fish, gnocchi & vegetables, and panna cotta of white chocolate for dessert. Chaplain (Major) Sean Moore, KPC's Officer in Charge, reiterated that the source of love is God by reading from Deuteronomy 7, "Know therefore that the Lord your God is God; he is the faithful God, keeping his covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love him and keep his commandments (New International Version)." KPC recognized couples married the least amount and the most amount of time with a gift of a DVD. Each couple competed by attempting to match a list of love songs with their performing artist. Overall, those present reported having a wonderful and enriching evening. The Katterbach Protestant Congregation is one way the Religious Support Office supports the USAG Ansbach Garrison Commander's Lines of Effort 1 Mission Command, 3 Community Support, and 4 Ready and Resilient.