

USAG ANSBACH RSO CONFRONTS CHANGE

Susan Miller, author, speaker, and founder of Just Moved Ministries offers guests signed copies of "After the Boxes Are Unpacked" and "But Mom, I Don't Want to Move!" as well as other resources.

Colonel Christopher Benson, Commander, USAG Ansbach, joins Susan Miller and members of both the Religious Support Office and 12th Combat Aviation Brigade for a delicious meal.

Summary: On 3 May 2015 USAG Ansbach Religious Support Office (RSO) hosted a dinner with Susan Miller, founder of Just Moved Ministries. This event was designed for those struggling with the thought of another permanent change of station (PCS) or who feel “stuck” and haven’t felt at home in their new environment. Susan’s theme of Surviving and Thriving through Transition addressed the topic of Confronting Change During Tough Times. Colonel Christopher Benson supported the event and made himself available to any and all who had questions or concerns related to the Aviation Realignment Initiative (ARI) immediately affecting our community. Soldiers, Family members, Department of the Army Civilians and Department of Defense Education Activity - Europe employees enjoyed salad, main dishes of their choice, dessert and coffee. The RSO provided child care, which afforded many couples the opportunity to attend together. Dinner with Susan Miller of Just Moved Ministries is one way the Religious Support Office supports the USAG Ansbach Garrison Commander’s Lines of Effort 1 Mission Command, 3 Community Support, and 4 Ready and Resilient.
